

About Us

AGQ Nutrition was founded in 1993 as a personal challenge of Angel Gago, a renowned chemist and nutritionist in the Spanish feed industry. Angel Gago left his position as a head of Trow Nutrition's Spanish R&D and Control Lab to start a new company specialized in the R&D of new feed additives and its mixtures, raw material formulation and quality control.

AGQ Nutrition is present in the European market, as well as the south american market thru its distributors.
